My dear Sri Venkataramani,

Yours of the 19th instant re: the relieving of Sri Ramakrishna. You have not indicated the time there. I have told you of our difficulty in sparing him from the Department of Industries and Commerce because of the schemes of Electrical industries we have before us. I will let you know definitely as soon as the Chief Minister returns from Nasik. Meanwhile, he is doing the job as though he is a wholetimer and then maybe no difficulty in sparing him for a month.

I am sorry I could not meet you yesterday evening.

With best regards,

Yours sincerely,

My dear Dasappa,

I forgot to talk to you about the arrangements necessary to let Ramakrishna devote his whole time for HAL, for the present, in view of the decision of the Board of Directors yesterday. I shall be grateful if you can arrange to have him relieved immediately of his duties under the Mysore Government, so that in the probably difficult days in the immediate future in HAL, we have a General Manager devoting his whole time for that job.

All the best.

Yours sincerely,
